

Vegetable printing competition Report

Vegetables aren't just for eating! They can be used to make beautiful paintings and crafts. The Primary Section of the Hanumant High School, Mahuva held a Vegetable printing Competition on 27th-July, 2016 for the students of Grade 1st & 2nd. Kids are always looking for new things to set their sights on. As a teacher, we need to ensure that our busy students have something productive to keep them occupied and avoid wasting precious time. How about vegetable painting for children? Sounds fun isn't it? This craft is super simple so vegetable printing is perfect for the younger ones. All that a student requires for this activity are some vegetable from kitchen and some paint. This is a terrific, inexpensive way to introduce printmaking to students. It was a mass competition conducted in their respective classrooms. All the students actively participated. It was to evaluate their creative skills. Result is as follows:
