

Activity on Diamond shape

Shapes are all around us. A shape is the outer boundary of an object and is made up of curves and/or lines. We are familiar with basic shapes like circle, squares and triangles. Diamonds have many different geometric attributes. In Sr. K.G. class we took an activity on Rhombus shape Diamond. Students did different types of colours in that shape. Students enjoyed during this activity.