

OLYMPIAD REPORT

External assessment helps in developing competent person from practicing. It can be used as a good device for motivating students. Hanumant High School Primary Section students participated in 10th International Mathematics Olympiad 2016-17. The winners of the competition were acknowledged and awarded with certificates and medals. All the participants were awarded with participation certificate. The School Authorities appreciated their participation and wished them a flying success ahead. Results were as follows:

