MOM

She is a person who shares
And a person who cares
We all have one
Without her we are nowhere

It is not a surprise to know
That she is always there
Whenever you need her
She brightens up your day

You can never understand
If she is happy or she is sad
But I do know we depend on her
Hope she feels the same for us

You know whom I am talking about
You don't really need a clue
Still I guess I'll just give you one
She starts with "M" yes it is MOM.
